ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to St. Paul's. If you are a visitor, we hope you will enjoy our service and feel very much at home with us. Please join us for a time of fellowship and refreshments after the service in the Guild Room.

THANK YOU to Elaine Flett-Hurst for playing the organ for our service this morning while Douglas is on holiday.

EAST AFRICA DROUGHT RELIEF: PWS&D is working with Canadian Foodgrains Bank and Canadian Lutheran World Relief in Ethiopia's Goro district to provide 18,350 people with more than 1,900 tonnes of food, including wheat, beans, oil and famix, a supplementary food product. Donations may be made through your church offering envelopes or placed directly on the plate suitably marked.

2012 DIARIES are now available for sale from the office. The cost per diary is $8.

JAMS - PICKLES - RELISHES: Please remember to save some for the deli table at the Christmas Fair on November 27th when you are making jams etc. We can sell any amount of these home-made goodies - everyone loves them! We would also appreciate any empty jam jars etc. for those making jams. Many thanks!

BEAT THE HEAT: Applewood Retirement Residence, 1500 Lansdowne Street, West, will be holding a Beat The Heat get-together on Wednesday, August 24th, from 2-4 p.m. There will be free ice cream ☺. For more information call 705-749-1500.

STEPS FOR LIFE WALKATHON: Peterborough Pregnancy Support Services are holding a walkathon on Saturday, Sept. 24 to help reach their goal. Sponsor forms are on the coffee table.

ST LUKE'S THRIFT SHOP: Just a reminder to that St. Luke's Thrift Shop is open Fridays and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Check the bulletin board for more details.
