ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to St. Paul's. If you are a visitor, we hope you will enjoy our service and feel very much at home with us. Please join us for a time of fellowship and refreshments after the service in the Guild Room.

FLOWERS in church this morning have been placed to the glory of God and in loving memory of Art and Phyllis Cummings by their daughter Maxine and in honour of Lance Sergeant Robert J.G. Sutherland by Mildred, Millie & Ray McFadyen.

THANK YOU to those taking part in our Remembrance Sunday Service today: Our readers of the Honour Roll, Frank Lucas and John Patton; our piper, Bruce Anderson; our wreath bearers Ian and Lauren Roxburgh; and reader of "In Flanders Field", Ian Roxburgh.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED during the Remembrance Service if you are unable to stand. Being seated indicates no sign of disrespect.

REV. TURNER'S RETIREMENT: According to the Book of Forms, when a minister retires, his/her congregation is invited to attend that Presbytery meeting when the retirement is processed and can speak, if desired. The Presbytery meeting at which Rev. Turner's retirement will be considered is to be held on Tues., Nov. 15th. At the moment, the time and place have not yet been decided. A further announcement will be made next Sunday.

EGGS FOR INDIA: Today the young people will be collecting change for Eggs for India.

FOOD BANK: Thank you to all that have brought food donations today for the Food Bank. Just a reminder that the Food Bank does not accept opened packages or food items past their due dates.

NEWSLETTER: Articles for the newsletter due today, thank you!

CHICKEN OR MEAT PIE ORDERS: Sign-up sheets are outside the office for pre-orders. Order yours today!
